Social Security Form

Licensing Students:

For security purposes our system does not capture and retain social security numbers. However, the State of Florida requires all providers to submit social security numbers on all certification for students who are seeking to obtain an insurance license. *See Note.

Those seeking licensure for the First Time in Florida:
Complete this form and return it to the Orlando office by fax 877-275-6440 or email orlandoinsuranceschool@gmail.com. You will not be eligible for certification without this form completed and received by our office.

Those currently licensed in Florida with a Florida Insurance License Number:
The Florida insurance license number can be used for certification. Make sure your personal account information is up to date and includes your Florida Insurance License Number otherwise you will not be eligible for certification without it. IF you have the FL Insurance License Number you do not need to submit the Social Security Form, just make sure your License Number is in your account information.
